February-March 2012

Dear Friends,

In a book I've been reading recently, I came across a very interesting story. Years ago an old mountain man had been asked if he'd ever been lost. He replied, "No. I've never been lost. But sometimes for a month or two, I didn't know how to get where I was going."

"If I had a nickel, " I thought.

Life itself, and especially the life of faith is a pilgrimage, a journey. It often takes us through forests, across deserts and overseas where we don't know exactly where we are and how to get where we are going.

And by "where we're going," I don't just mean the afterlife and whatever it may or may not be. When referring to "where we're going," I'm talking about arriving at each place of new understanding and beginning—the places in the process of being human that we become more fully human, more clearly a reflection of the Holiness in whose image we are created.

As JPC continues its work of discerning who we are and where we are going, we may spend some time in places of wandering, places where we feel as if we've lost track of how to get where we're going. We can take at least some comfort in the truth that when Jesus calls us to follow him, he does not promise ease and certainty along the way. He simply promises to be with us. The only way to be truly lost on this journey, then, is to withhold Christ's grace and love from others, and to refuse to welcome them into the challenging but transforming work of discipleship.

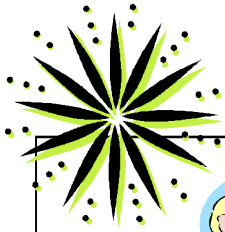

It occurs to me, too, that as a 200-plus year-old congregation, Jonesborough Presbyterian is hardly a newcomer to the process of working through challenges, of listening to God's voice, making the changes and adaptations to continue being and becoming a place of relevant worship, service and spiritual nurture. Had this church not been able and willing to make such changes in the past, there would be nothing left of us but a historical plaque out by Main Street.

We are more than a plaque. We are a lively, welcoming, growing, nurturing, servant church. We may be rethinking some aspects of our mission. We may need to tweak the way we express and approach our vision for the future, but we will continue to seek to be faithful to the ways and words of Jesus of Nazareth.

So, take heart. Even when we have no idea how to get to where we're going, we will not be lost.

Peace,

Allen

CHERRY'S CHOIR NOTES

COME JOIN US SING! Join one of our choirs!

All of the choirs of Jonesborough Presbyterian Church are now practicing their music for Easter! Easter is on April 8th this year. That sounds like it is a long way from the beginning of February but it takes a lot of practice to sound as good as our choirs do!

The newest choir of Jonesborough Presbyterian Church, The Community Children's Choir, is open to ANY child from age 5 to age 18! We welcome any young person to become a part of this wonderful choir! Meetings start at 6 p.m. each Monday in the fellowship hall of Jonesborough Presbyterian Church. Come, join, lift up your voices in joyous song!

The Golden Heirs (whose talent includes that of members of other churches in the area, like Telford Baptist) are appearing at the VA Hospital on February 16th in honor of Veterans Appreciation Day. The choir will move from room to room singing to those who gave their best for their country.

The Hand Bell choir will be performing on the first Sunday in March at Roan Hill Baptist Church.

All choirs will be meeting at regular times and working on their Easter music. IT'S NOT TOO LATE TO JOIN!

SING OUT! RING OUT!

"Serve the Lord with gladness; come before his presence with singing!"

—Psalm 100

LADIES! COME SNACK & YACK WITH US !!

Ladies, you are invited to join one of our favorite pastimes! That of gathering around the "kitchen table" for a nice meal and lively, fun conversation! Doesn't that sound relaxing and a little different? We will usually meet on the last Tuesday of each month at 1 p.m. The Yack & Snack group are going to explore the cuisine of our area while sharing in laughter, news, and general fun chatter. Watch the church bulletin each month for our next destination! Won't it be fun to explore old or new places to eat and have a wonderful, friendly gathering of friends as an extra attraction!

Remember: It will strengthen ties with the church and with our friends to occasionally get out to talk & laugh! Any questions? Please call Zel Hester at 913-1214, or Ann Norman at 753-8181.

This month we will meet on the third Tuesday however, at the new Jonesborough restaurant, Daily Bread, on Tuesday, February 21st at 1 pm! Good food! Great company!!

HELPING HANDS STILL NEEDED

Helping Hands-The Missions Ministry Team is trying to develop a pool of volunteers in the church. Needed—people who can help other church members with those occasional odd jobs around the house and yard, such as clearing out a rain gutter, changing a hard to reach light bulb, some lawn work occasionally, etc. Jobs that some of the members find difficult, if not impossible to do without risk of falling or of injury. If you are interested in helping or if you need help, please contact the church office at 753-6162.

Very Real Need for DEPENDABLE DRIVERS

The Congregational Life and Membership Committee is seeking those people who can help some of our church members who are no longer have the option of driving themselves to doctor's appointments or possibly the quick trip to the grocery store, etc.

If you can lend your time in this endeavor, it would be gratefully and graciously accepted by those who are in need of that extra special care. Please notify Ida Shurr or Kathy Scheu in the office if you can add your name to the Dependable Drivers List!

DO NOT MISS !!

The church library has some wonderful books that are just waiting to be checked out—and while you are checking them out, REALLY check one out, take it home and enjoy! Books are so portable and do not require batteries, outlets, computer capabilities, etc. Give yourself a treat! Bet you can't read just one!!

REESE TO CYCLE: Jason Reese, that is-

Jason Reese will be riding in the Cycle for Survival which is a national, team cycling event. The event has raised millions of dollars, more than $9 million, to support the life-changing research which is being done at the Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center. Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center is one of the world's "premiere cancer research institutions."

Jason will be riding in the race with over 10,000 other cyclists from across the USA and around the world to help make a difference in the lives of millions of people affected by rare cancers. Every dollar that Reese makes goes directly to the MSKCC fund research on rare cancers. "In the just the past five years," writes Jason, "Cycle has funded a total of 25 new clinical trials and research studies with the promise of so many from the success of Cycle 2012."

To help in this endeavor please go to Jason's fundraising page where a tax-deductible donation can be made. jasonreese@gmail.com

CHASING SNAKES!!

Saturday, March 17 the 4th Annual Chasing Snakes 10K Road Race & Fitness Walk/Fun run will take place to benefit the IHN of Johnson City!!

This year is expected to be bigger and better than the previous years! About 8:30 am the gun will be fired to the Road Race to begin and shortly thereafter for the noncompetitive event.

Everyone is needed to make this Chasing Snakes a huge success. YOU are needed! There are many volunteer opportunities available for every type of skill level and time commitment.

WANT TO VOLUNTEER? Go to chasingSnakes10k.com if you would like to volunteer from any time now until race day or you can help the weekend of March 17. Please email Amy Combs at amycombslp@comcast.net
