Dear Friends,

Happy New Year to you all!

I do mean that. But saying it always reminds me that New Year's Eve tends to be one of my least favorite observances. More than any other time of the year, New Year's Eve becomes the occasion for people to put their stupid on and lose track of reality—not to mention consciousness. The custom of no-holds-barred New Year's Eve reveling as a way to turn loose of tensions and to look backward and forward fails to make sense to me. I have never understood the reasoning behind the desire to begin a new year mentally and physically impaired. But maybe that is just old insipid, inhibited, introverted me.

To me, New Year's Eve opens the door to a room I've never been in. This room may be in a familiar house. The same roof covers our heads. The same floor lies at my feet. And I've even run my hands along the outside of the same walls that line the inside of this new room. But like an unentered room, a new year is a brand new space—pristine, unknown, full of promise and hope as well as unseen dangers, discomforts and even tragedies.

A new year is bound by its limited number of days and weeks as a room is by its walls. But the year is deeper and wider than any household room. We cannot stand in the doorway and see all the way to the end. The days of the new year will unfold before us, each one a gift and a wonder. We cannot know exactly what to expect. We will not always know what to do and how to react. We may not even always know whom to trust. Each day will be an adventure unto itself.

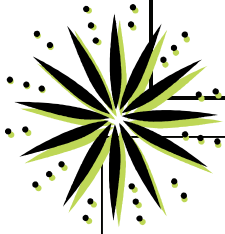

On New Year's Eve we stand at the threshold of this new room and peer expectantly and hopefully as light from the hallway begins to reveal the layout. Then, on New Year's Day we begin to take our first steps into these new surroundings and look for the familiar light.

"I am the light of the world," says Jesus. "Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness but will have the light of life."

The image of Jesus as The Light has led to a lot of dark misunderstanding. Light does not eliminate all those dangers, discomforts and tragedies we mentioned earlier. Light simply helps to make them visible. But Jesus' light also helps us to navigate our way through them, and to live toward fullness and wholeness in spite of all that can so quickly and coarsely turn a day of celebration into a season of grief or healing.

2012 is upon us. It is new and uncharted. Its surprises will both delight and discourage. May the Light of Life guide your feet, your hearts, your minds and your spirits. And may something brighten each and every day for you.

Shalom,
Allen

CHERRY'S CHOIR NOTES

COME JOIN US SING! Join one of our choirs

All of the choirs have had a rest after the very busy holiday season. We are now ready to begin practices again for the Lord's house! If you would like to be a part of our wonderful music department here at Jonesborough Presbyterian Church, there is something here for you!

The NEW choir on Monday nights (Jonesborough Presbyterian Church's Community Children's Choir) is beginning a new musical for Spring entitled "Follow U". This the latest adventure for Children's Choir music with beautiful music and exciting dialogue in it! This choir is open for any child from 5 years to 18 years of age! What a range...but what a challenge! Our youngest child is Jessy who is 5 and our oldest is Katie who is a senior at UH high. It is amazing how the children work together on these projects. We welcome any young person to be a part of this wonderful choir. Our meetings are at 6 p.m. each Monday in the fellowship hall at Jonesborough Presbyterian Church!

HAND BELLS are beginning new music for Easter and general music to be performed at other performances arranged for this wonderful group. Come and ring out the joy with us!

Adult choir is also beginning new music for the Easter season. Now is a good time to join with these fun and talented members and raise your voice in joyous song!

The Golden Heirs (whose talent includes those from other churches in the area) will begin practicing new music for Easter also. The Golden Heirs meet on Thursday evenings at 6:30 pm.

SNACKERS AND YACKERS WANTED !!

Ladies, you are invited to join one of our favorite pastimes! That of gathering around the "kitchen table" for a nice meal and lively, fun conversation! Doesn't that sound relaxing and a little different? We will be meeting on the last Tuesday of each month at 1 p.m. The Yack & Snack group are going to explore the cuisine of our area while sharing in laughter, news, and general fun chatter. Watch the church bulletin each month for our next destination! Won't it be fun to explore old or new places to eat and have a wonderful, friendly gathering of friends as an extra attraction!

Remember that it will strength ties with the church and with our friends to occasionally get out and have a great time with friends old and new! Any questions? Please call Zel Hester at 913-1214 or Ann Norman at 753-8181.

We will meet at the new restaurant Daily Bread in Jonesborough on Tuesday, January 31st! Good food! Great company!!

MEMBER AT FOUR OAKS

Pat Wilson is residing at Four Oaks Health Care Center at 1101 Persimmon Ridge Road, and would love to have you visit her!

REQUEST FROM PROPERTY COMMITTEE

In order to keep the driveway beside the church open, we ask that cars NOT be parked for extended periods in the driveway. When it is necessary to park in order to load/unload items into/out of your car, please move it to a parking space in the back or out in front of the church as soon as possible. It can be a very dangerous maneuver to have to back out into Main Street when the driveway is blocked and other cars are lining the curb in front of the church.

Thank you!

Notable Quotable Quotes

From Mother Teresa:

“Make us worthy, Lord, to serve others throughout the world who live and die in poverty or hunger,

Give them, through our hands, this day their daily bread, and by our understanding of love, give peace and joy. “

Very Real Need for DEPENDABLE DRIVERS

The Congregational Life and Membership Committee is seeking those people who can help some of our church members who no longer have the option of driving themselves to doctor's appointments or possibly the quick trip to the grocery store, etc.

If you can lend your time in this endeavor, it would be gratefully and graciously accepted by those who are in need of that extra special care. Please notify Ida Shurr or Kathy Scheu in the office if you can add your name to the Dependable Drivers List!

The following letter shows how much your support of IHN does not go unrewarded:

From: Brian– IHN Executive Director

“I hope all of you have a very Merry Christmas and know that the work you do with IHN continues to make a difference. Please be in prayer for the four families in the program, the 9 families in Families Moving Home and the 10 families on the waiting list. Each of them need your continued support through prayer. You have cared for them all year and you became a part of their lives. I hope they have also become a part of yours.

I’d like to share a couple of things that I think will reinforce this thought and also reinforce the true meaning of Christmas.

1. James, Angel and their boys Dagon and Skye moved into the Families Moving Home Program & into their new home last week. They are located on Pardee Street in a home that is old but well maintained. We had two spare Christmas trees when they moved out so we gave them one & they are so excited. After the first year, James will attend Assistant Manager School for his company.

2. Yesterday, Marie and sweet little Aaliyah moved into their very nice 2 bedroom home located over by God’s Corner. We gave them the other Christmas tree. They too are in Families Moving Home and will receive our case management support and subsidized housing while Aaliyah continues to receive home schooling with her teacher and a retired elementary teacher volunteer. Marie is working on her GED and then wants to begin taking post-secondary classes or focus on a specific trade.

Yesterday when they were in the van ready to head out of the Day Center parking lot for the last time, Aaliyah called me over to her where she was sitting in her car seat. When I got closer to her she opened her arms, gave me a BIG hug and told me she loved me! Needless to say, I had my Christmas gift yesterday! That’s all I want!

Aaliyah’s words were not just meant for me. I’m not around Aaliyah that much in the capacity in which I serve IHN. What she was really saying to me was thank you for all the wonderful things this ministry has done for her. She was excited to now be able to go to a “real home”, get ready for Christmas and start a new life. Oh...how a child can express that so well!

So thank you for all you do. You have touched the lives of so many IHN families and I hope your heart sings like mine, knowing that what you do is making a difference; not just in the lives of families but for the Kingdom of God.

Blessing to you all and see you in the New Year,

Brian
IHN Executive Director

Thank you, Glenn Walker, for sharing this letter with us.
